

New Member Information Pack

Thank you for your interest in joining the Settlement Council of Australia (SCOA). Membership of SCOA is open to organisations that provide settlement services. There are two types of membership:

Full Membership

Full membership is open to all organisations that have received MRC or MSA core funding in the past, and also to multicultural services which operate with a community based board of directors as its primary instrument of governance, and which provide settlement services in a region.

Being a full member of SCOA entitles you to:

- Vote at SCOA General Meetings, and to nominate a representative of the organisation for membership of the SCOA National Executive
- Inform the development of SCOA's policies and positions
- Receive free copies of all SCOA's reports and submissions
- Receive a regular newsletter
- Receive updates on policy, events and other things of interest to the settlement sector
- Free use of training / meeting rooms at SCOA's head office in Sydney as well as a new office based in Canberra.
- Receive access to members only area on Settlement Council website

Associate Membership

Associate membership is open to other relevant organisations that share the objectives of SCOA. Being an Associate Member entitles you to many of the benefits of Full Members, but Associate Members cannot vote at General Meetings or nominate a representative for membership of the National Executive.

New Membership:

We wish to apply for the following type of membership:

Full Member Associate Member

Member organisations are listed on the SCOA website. Do you agree to have your organisation listed on the SCOA website? Yes No

Applications for new membership should include a letter expressing your interest in membership of SCOA, written by the organisation's management committee and on the organisation's letterhead. A copy of the organisation's Constitution and/or Rules should also be enclosed.

Your membership application will be discussed by the SCOA National Executive at the monthly SCOA executive meeting. Please do not send any money with your membership application. We will contact you after your application has been considered. SCOA has revised its membership fees on a sliding scale for the purpose of equity to enable smaller organisations to also have a voice at the national level. Please identify your organisational membership fee by ticking one of the boxes on the attached sheet.
